

From The Desk of Mrs. Yahne

Week of September 28

Religion: Chapter 4: The Church Begins We will continue to do the vocabulary for this chapter. The book will come home this week on Thursday due to the shortened week. The keywords include: mission, Ascension, Pentecost, church and Christians. We are going to Adoration on Thursday and will read the next edition of "Good News". Mass followed on Friday.

Math: We will continue working on Chapter 4 this week with problem solving, choosing a computation method. We will review on Thursday with a test on Friday over Chapter 4.

Reading: The story this week will be "The Strongest One" This is a cute story over who is stronger the wind or the sun. The vocabulary test will be on Friday of this week.

Vowac: Lessons 236~ which include the ways to spell the long /e/. ex. ee, ea, and ie.

Spelling: Chapter 21: Compound Words. Continue to study over the weekend for the pretest.

English: Chapter 3 will be the study of nouns. The focus for the week include: building vocabulary, combining sentences and reviewing for the test which will be held on October 6.

Science (Mrs. Yahne): Lesson 6: Parts of Animals: different body parts help an animal to survive. Be sure to study the worksheets and vocabulary on a daily basis, this will help prepare your child for the test. We have one lesson left after this one and then we will be preparing for a test.

Social Studies (Mrs. Rokusek) We will begin exploring Chapter 2: Communities and Geography. This week we will learn about landforms, bodies of water, tall tale about Paul Bunyan, and map scales. Please be watching for a note about our landform project we will be completing during Social Studies.

Handwriting: This week we will learn the letter a and review all letters learned.

Comments:

* Don't forget the Autumn Classic is on August 26th. I hope many of you are able to make this. It sounds like a lot of fun. I will be out of town for my daughter's band competitions in Luverne and Brandon Valley.

* Please turn in all magazine slips by Friday. The kids have been going home with so many neat prizes from turning in their slips. I shared with them that it sure would be nice to have a chocolate fountain party! :)

* September 29th is the Feast of the Archangels Raphael, Michael and Gabriel. We will be working on a booklet this week to recognize these important angels.

* We will be going to listen to 4-6th grade student council speeches on October 1st. Then those children, who have shown an interest in student council, will be giving their one minute speeches (please stick to 1 minute) on Friday, October 2nd. We will be voting for Student Council Officers sometime that day as well as a representative from our classroom. Good luck to all the candidates.
