Reading: The story this week will be Seven Spools of Thread. The skills include drawing conclusions and making inferences. Vocabulary test will be on Thursday.

Vowac: The skills this week will be r-controlled syllables spelled with /ear/.

Spelling: R-controlled syllables using /ar/, /or/, and /ear/.

English: Correcting sentences, capitalizing proper nouns and abbreviations will be the topic.

Science: (Mrs. Yahne): The themes this week will be minerals and rocks, and kinds of soil. If your child has any rocks or minerals they would like to bring and share with the class, they sure can. This will be a fun unit.

Social Studies: (Mrs. Rokusek) This week we will be discussing the meaning and importance of the Declaration of Independence and Constitution.

Handwriting: Reviewing manuscript writing will be the topic. The children are doing well on their cursive.

Comments:

- School gets out on December 23 and resumes on January 4th.
- Just a reminder the form for the Pizza Ranch will need to be in by January 6th. Please consider helping if you are able.
- There will be school on January 18th, but with no bussing.
- Report cards will come home on Tuesday, December 22. Be sure to check you child's book bag.
- Have a GREAT break and we'll see you on January 4th.

MERRY CHRISTMAS and thanks for all that you do for me and your child!
