

From The Desk of Mrs. Yahne

Week of February 1

Religion: Chapter 16: We Celebrate the Eucharist at Mass. The books will be coming home on Tuesday. PLEASE be sure to sign the religion book. Thanks!

Math: Chapter 13: Exploring Division. Continue to study daily those flashcards as they will need to know then to do division. Did the website work out great?

Reading: The story this week will be Boom Town. The skills include sequencing. Book will be coming home on Wednesday.

Vowac: The topic this week will be over doubling before adding a suffix.

Spelling: Lesson 18. Be sure to study on a daily basis!

English: This week we will be reviewing for the upcoming test.

Science: (Mrs. Yahne): This week we will be doing the review at the end of the chapter plus looking at rocks on the promethean board.

Social Studies: (Mrs. Rokusek) February is Black History Month. In Social Studies, we will be researching an African American person and creating a poster about them.

Handwriting: This week we will focus on the letter W and review the ones before it.

Comments:

- Saturday or Sunday, please plan on attending and singing at the masses this weekend for Catholic Schools Week. I sent a note home regarding times and places.
- Sunday is the carnival. Hopefully all of you are able to attend the big day. Please have your raffle tickets to the office by Friday.
- Monday we will be attending the Red Cross Assembly at 9:00. Please bring in those trash bags to school as soon as possible.
- Tuesday is the staff appreciation so we will be able to go to lunch from 11-1. Yeah!
