

Dear Parent,

I would like to begin this week's newsletter thanking our John Paul II families for their awesome support of our school Carnival and Catholic Schools Week. Our carnival was a wonderful time of games, food and socializing with each other. Tomorrow we will close out our celebration of Catholic School's Week with our all-school Mass. Please join us if you can for this very special liturgical celebration of our school and our Catholic faith.

Our PTO meeting for February will be on Monday, February 8 in the Art and Science Room at 7:00pm. Please take some time and join us to hear the results of everyone's hard work on the carnival and our plans for future projects. The meetings usually only last about 30-45 minutes and your input is very much wanted and appreciated.

Next Thursday, February 11, John Paul II will be holding Parent Teacher Conferences for grades K-6. Preschool conferences will be held at a later date. Thursday's conferences will be from 3:30-8:00pm. One of my favorite times of the school year is conference night. I enjoy more than I can say visiting with you about our school and your children. Please call the office or email your child's teacher if you have any questions about your scheduled time.

One of my favorite parts of conferences always includes our Scholastic Book Fair. Students will be viewing the available books on Tuesday, February 9 and purchasing books they would like on Wednesday, February 10. The Book Fair will be open during scheduled conferences. A huge thank you to Mrs. Rezac, our librarian, for her work managing the Fair and also to our volunteer parents who will help set up and sell books.

Just a reminder that there will be NO SCHOOL on Friday, February 12 and Monday, February 15
